ALL CLASSES ARE HELD IN ROOMS A, B and C

12:00 PM

Hooray for Hostas! -- Enhance your shade garden with a variety of Hostas. Our presenter will provide guidance for Hosta cultivation including dividing, re-sizing and replanting divided plants. There will also be tips on plant depth, spacing, fertilizing and other necessary care of Hostas.

Remi Link, CCE, Oneida County, Staff Member

1:00 PM

No Fear Orchids – If you've been thinking that orchids are too hard to grow, this workshop is for you. You will learn about the Phalaenopsis Orchid, famed for being easy to grow. The demonstration will include potting, watering, pruning, dividing and repotting as well as other basic maintenance techniques.

Lorie Burritt and Jeannine Stevener, Orchid Gardeners

The Master Gardener Volunteer booth will answer your garden questions. Parker F. Scripture Botanical Garden is open every day, dawn to dusk and free to the public. Enjoy yourself with a walk in the garden!

LOOK for our baked goods at the Master Gardener herbal pastries booth near the pavilion along with our hot dog booth. Try our ice cream sandwiches at the booth on the Judd Road side of our building. Take a LOOK at our great local vendors in the surrounding booths.

10:00 AM

Dahlias.... And More! – Looking for a colorful summer garden? Do it with dahlias! This presentation will feature all you should know about raising dahlias, including planting, watering, maintenance, propagation and harvesting. The speakers will also highlight sunflowers, cannas and other large summer flowers.

Susan Kimball and Patricia Hagerty, Master Gardener Volunteers

11:00 AM

Time for Containers – The perfect place for your herbs and flowers may be in a container. Mike Mahanna will discuss recent innovations in container gardening practices, including designs, sizes, colors, and potting materials. He will also discuss plant combinations, maintenance and long-term updates.

Mike Mahanna, Master Gardener Volunteer

PLEASE BE AWARE WE DO NOT HAVE MONARCHS THIS YEAR DUE TO THE SPINED SOLDIER INSECT,

Podisus maculiventris. The spined soldier insect preys on monarch larva, and we hope the absence of monarchs will remove the insect, naturally.

PLEASE ENJOY OUR POLLINATOR GARDEN!

THANK YOU FOR COMING AND ENJOY YOUR DAY! ALL CLASSES ARE HELD IN
ROOMS A, B and C

ARTISTIC CHAIRS!

Artistic chairs created by our Master Gardener Volunteers are on display throughout our gardens. Each unique chair is available to purchase for $25.00.

Once you have selected your chair(s), please make your payment at the Master Gardener Volunteer booth.

All funds received will support enhancements to our Parker F. Scripture Botanical Gardens.

THANK YOU
MASTER GARDENER
TONY SALERNO!

Thank you Tony, for your 30 years of dedication to the Master Gardener Volunteer program, most notably the multitude of answers you provided to callers on our Horticulture Hotline. Enjoy your retirement! You will be missed. Our wonderful Master Gardener volunteers will still be taking Horticulture Hotline calls on Wednesday and Fridays from 9AM to noon, 315 736 3394 extension 127
